Seafarers lead hard and dangerous lives. Sea Sunday gifts and prayers will help seafarers and fishers get the support they need. Stella Maris chaplains and volunteers are working in ports up and down this country, and across the world: but they cannot do it without your support. If you would like to give a gift to this collection, you can donate here: <https://donate.giveasyoulive.com/campaign/apostleship-of-the-sea>

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Psalter Week 2, Year C

Jesus appoints each of his followers to go out to heal and to preach the kingdom of God. He needs help and he doesn't wait for us to sort out issues of personal frailty. He has selected us, and he says to us 'Go!!' People will be surprised and we will experience a variety of receptions as we try to share his love and his values.

'Greet no-one on the road'. The single-minded urgency of the gospel requires a suspension of social norms, even of basic traveller's courtesy. What does my own spiritual 'journey' look like? Does it have something of the same intensity and focus that makes people take notice of something unusual? Do I come across as a man, or a woman, on a mission?

Lord, sometimes I wonder if I have the ability to recognise you at all in the midst of all my clutter.

Am I carrying too many purses, bags and sandals?

Make me content with less, which is enough.

I pray now to be happily aware that the kingdom of God is very near.

Readings:

1st Reading: Isaiah 66:10-14. After the Exile, Jerusalem is like a mother nursing her child at the breast.

Responsorial Psalm: R/ Cry out with joy to God all the earth.

2nd Reading: Galatians 6:14-18. Paul bears the marks of Christ's passion on his own body

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20. Jesus sent the seventy missionaries to share in his powerful ministry.

MILL HILL BBQ: to help create an annual Open Garden

A BBQ will be held at the Mill Hill Missionaries premises in Colby Gardens on Friday 12th August starting at 6.00 pm. Tickets for this event will be on sale after the masses at St Joseph's priced £25. This includes the following: a glass of Prosecco on arrival, a 3-course meal by a professional chef: starters, a main course which consists of meat and vegetarian dishes from the BBQ and salads; and a choice of desserts. You will of course have the chance to be in the company of Mill Hill Missionaries! You are asked to Bring your own drink. Glasses will be provided. Raffle tickets will also be available to buy on the evening.

Proceeds from this event will be used for a garden development project in our spacious compound. Our aim is to have an Open Garden at least once a year. In order for this to be realised, we need to invest in the following infrastructure:

- Seating: benches and garden chairs.
- Marquee tent: to be used to serve refreshments for Mill Hill feasts and also for Open days.
- Improve the prayer space around the statues of St Francis of Assisi and St Anthony of Padua: to enable people to pray in these areas.

We hope to see you on the 12th!
