Jesus – the One who takes away our sins

Once upon a time there was a beautiful porcelain teapot. But it was very frail and delicate. Consequently, it was used only on very special occasions, and only for important visitors. But then one day a careless person dropped it. The lid and spout got broken. The beautiful teapot was now considered to be useless and was thrown out.

For a long time it lay in a refuse dump. Coats of dirt settled on it, blotting out whatever traces of beauty it still possessed. From time-to-time people came to the dump, hoping to find something of value. On seeing the teapot, they would say, 'What a pity it got broken! It must have been beautiful when it was in one piece'.

Then one day a famous flower grower visited the dump. She found the teapot and took it home with her. The first thing she did was clean it up. In spite of its brokenness, she found it very beautiful, and she wondered how anyone could have thrown it away. Then she had an inspiration. She would use it as a flowerpot. She filled it with soil, planted a seed in it, and placed it in the front window of her house. Time passed. The seed grew and blossomed into a beautiful flower. Passers-by stopped to admire the flower, and also the handsome pot in which it grew.

Sin is not a physical stain that we can just wash away. Nor can we take it away as if it was a thing. Sin is not a thing. Sin is a condition – a condition of brokenness and woundedness. Each of us is damaged and broken.

Jesus came to redeem us. To be redeemed is to be made whole and well. It is to be restored to our original brightness through the grace of the Holy Spirit. However, this is a lifelong process. We are not things to be repaired. We are people, people to be brought back into relationship with God and one another.

Lord, send your Holy Spirit to us, to heal the wounds of our hearts so that we may produce the fruits of love.

Christian Unity Week

18-25 January 2026

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling. (Ephesians 4:4)

In a world with diverse and often divided traditions and expressions of Christian faith, Eph 4:4 reminds us that all believers are part of the "one body" of Christ.

For this year, the prayers and reflections for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity have been prepared by the faithful of the Armenian Apostolic Church, along with their brothers and sisters of the Armenian Catholic and Evangelical Churches. These resources draw upon centuries-old traditions of prayer and petitions used by the Armenian people, along with hymns that originated in the ancient monasteries and churches of Armenia, some of which date as far back as the fourth century. The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2026 extends an invitation to draw upon this shared Christian heritage and to delve more deeply into our fellowship in Christ, which unites Christians worldwide. ### FEED THE HUNGRY

Throughout January, our friends in Food Share, The Sue Brett Foundation and The Salvation Army are in dire need of Donations to feed the increased number of people who rely on their services and support in this cold and inhospitable weather. Please remember our brothers and sisters when you are shopping and pop an extra can or packet of food in your basket to donate and help Feed the Hungry. Your donations of clean, warm clothing are always welcome at this difficult time also. Thank you for your generosity.
